★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ National Honor Society

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest award for individual achievement that a cadet can receive. The members of this Society are chosen by the faculty and must stand high in scholarship, leadership, service and character. The number of members is limited to five per cent of the juniors, and fifteen per cent of the seniors. Texas Military Institute is one of the very few private schools to enjoy the distinction of having a charter of this Society.

Coach W. O. Miller

By general acclamation, Coach "W.O." is recognized to be one of the most popular members of the school staff. The high esteem in which he is held by faculty, students, and members of his teams is well earned. He knows his business, and he works hard at whatever he undertakes. An athlete in his own right, he scored the winning touchdown for his own school, Austin College, against a powerful S. M. U. team in his college days. He is an excellent bowler and badminton player, a skillful horseman, hunter and expert shot. He has had some twenty summers of experience as a camper and guide in the Yellowstone Region of the Rocky Mountains. But more important than all this is the fact that Coach Miller possesses the enviable quality of being able to impart to others his high sense of sportsmanship and his knowledge of the theory and technique of play.

His basketball teams have been amazingly and consistently successful. Playing in very fast company, his varsity squad this year lost but five of the eighteen games that they played; and these by very close margins. This represents a batting average of 72 per cent of games won. Two members of his team, Harlan Vander Zee and William Montgomery were contenders for high point scorers among the players of the city schools.

His Junior Basketball squads also have turned in enviable season records. Under the guidance of Assistant Coach Joe B. Strong, Jr., the A Basketball Squad lost but two of its fifteen games to win second place in the Bexar County League. T.M.I. has just reason to be proud of its "bounce ball boys."

"CRADLE OF TEXAS LIBERTY"

Tribute to Our City

San Antonio is a picturesque and historic city. No other place in America blends the old and the new in such a beautiful way. The lazy and unique river typifies the quiet and restful ease which is characteristic of the town. The old missions and forts remind us of the historic greatness of the past. The new and great army posts and flying fields show progress, the power and the strength which is San Antonio and America. The Alamo, first the Mission San Antonio de Valero, then a fort which played a vital part in Texas Independence, and then a shrine for all people who admire heroism and love liberty stands today as a symbol of our city. The San Antonio Academy, which overlooks old San Pedro Park and new San Pedro Playhouse, is a part of this history and heritage. In the past and in the present it teaches young boys to be young men who will carry on the traditions and the ideals of St. Anthony, and Bowie, and Crockett — the ideals of the Alamo and of America.

San Pedro Park

Every Academy boy fondly remembers San Pedro Park. Situated just across the street from the school, the park might be thought of as an extension of the school's campus. On Saturdays and Sundays, in particular, do the boarding students make use of the many attractions of San Pedro. The fine trees, the running streams and the rock formations are features that appeal to Academy boys. The park has several buildings. One of these, the Little Theatre, is the scene of the school's annual commencement exercises. Another is the branch of the city library, from which boys draw books during the session. Still another is the old rock house, a drawing of which by the school's artist, Tom Little, graces this page.

SAN PEDRO PLAYHOUSE

Boys at Work

This scene might be entitled, "The Battle of the Books," for here in study hall we foregather during vacant periods to pursue knowledge. Academy boys like to receive good grades, and we know that such cannot be attained without close study and constant application.

We shall long remember our study hall, a picture of which with us in it, is portrayed above. Likewise, the white outlines of our schoolhouse, shown in picture on the page opposite, will go with us forever when we say farewell to Academy.

A period of keen anticipation is furnished at the end of each school month when Col. Bondurant reads out the scholastic honors. Honor roll students must earn an average of 90 per cent. in their grades, while honorable mention boys must secure averages between 80 and 89 per cent.

The honor roll for the month of March of this year is printed on the opposite page.

SUMMARY OF THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

When Coach Strong took over the P. E. work in January, he put in a program that kept the boys interested and busy, even during the hard, winter weather. When the days were suitable, games and physical exercises were given outdoors. During inclement weather, the schedule went on indoors. Some of the high points of the program are summarized by the following outline:

Games in P. E.	P. E. Exercises	Sports in P. E.
Dizzy-Izzy	Crab Walk	Touch Football
Foot Races	Deep-Knee Bend	Basketball
Indian Wrestling	Duck Waddle	Soccer
Bull in the Ring	Sit-Ups	Volley Ball
Snatch the Bomb	Push-Ups	Soft Ball
